2nd Invitation

1 FOREWORD

Dear sports friends!

I have a pleasure to invite and welcome you all to the 2018 Ju-Jitsu European Championship for seniors, this year integrated with the first Masters Championship. The Polish Ju-Jitsu Federation has proven on many occasions how passionate they are about ju-jitsu and exercise these skills as devoted and resourceful organizers of international events. I have no doubt that the 2018 Ju-Jitsu European Championship with Masters will again bring the best of our athletes in Fighting, Duo and Ne-Waza and, furthermore, bring to the mats again some athletes who perhaps already continued their carrier as coaches, but still have skills, knowledge and experience to show what they are able to perform efficiently. So, beyond the respect to all athletes, coaches, referees, volunteers and staff, I would like to share special greetings to the participants of the Masters event.

Together with the Championship, the annual JJEU General Assembly will take place. The set of values, mission and vision of our development, approved by the General Assembly in Banja Luka in 2017 (with the Strategy 10-5-30) is in motion and we are looking with optimism and excitement to continue the work on ju-jitsu worldwide development with you.

I would like to thank the Polish Ju-Jitsu Federation (POLSKI ZWIĄZEK JU-JITSU), the local organizers and everyone who contributed to the organization to host this ju-jitsu event in Poland again.

I look forward to seeing you all again. Have a good time in Gliwice!

Robert Perc
JJEU President

Ladies and gentlemen, dear sports friends,

Ahead of us is another great event - the Ju-Jitsu European Championship 2018 in Gliwice for Seniors and first time also for Masters.

Hosting a championship-level event is an excellent opportunity to promote the brand of Poland on the international scale. Thus, I am particularly pleased that this major event will be held in our country. Poland has already proven its ability to host - with great organizational success - sport events such as the JJIF Ju-Jitsu World Championship for Seniors 2016 or The World Games 2017.

Over 500 athletes and also 40 referees, 100 volunteers, coaches, medical staff, physiotherapists, officials and a lot of sports fans took part in the JJIF Ju-Jitsu World Championship in Wrocław.

The Ju-Jitsu European Championship for Seniors and Masters, scheduled for June 2018, will be the main event of the championship rank in our country this year.

We hope that the Polish Team will prove once again its highest position in the world of Ju-Jitsu, as it has done many times before, by gaining many significant achievements in single and team competition. In the last 3 years, Poles won a lot of medals in championships events and are the best ju-jitsu team in the world – 3 times in a row.

Sports events like this bring a lot of positive emotions. There is nothing that unites and affects people better than the success of their country's athletes, wearing the national emblem – for Polish athletes, a white eagle – on their chests.

I do believe that this sporting event and the emotions ensured by the athletes will become an unforgettable experience for a long time.

With sporting regards,

Tomasz Knap

President of Polish Ju-Jitsu Association
